inheritance of the holy ones in light."*

COLOSSIANS 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or we spend most of our time trying to acquire more stuff. Instead, try putting God first in all things you do. We were made for God.

Children's Liturgy Excursion.

The Children's Liturgy team invites all children in grades 2 to 8 to join an excursion to St Stephen's Cathedral next Saturday, 29 November. The group will depart from St Matthew's at 12 noon and return at 4 pm. The excursion will include a guided tour of the Cathedral, prayer time, and fun group activities.

Permission forms are available at the back of the Church, please see Anna, Edwin, or Belinda for details.

Fr Richard.

For the month of November the Church prays for all the deceased. If you would like any new names of deceased families and friends added to our Parish's list, a box is available at the back of the Church. If you have already provided the names of the deceased person(s) in the last years, there is no need to provide their names again as their names are already entered into our book of prayers.

We have removed the weekly hardcopy list of names for the recently deceased, sick and anniversary. If you want someone to appear in the list of our newsletter please obtain their permission and email their names on Thursdays before lunch time to the parish office.

Pope Leo XIV intention for November 2025:

For collaboration between different religious traditions

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.
