Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord.

“As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross.”

MATTHEW 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbour. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbour and help him “carry his cross.” These opportunities aren’t usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person’s needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

As we celebrate Palm Sunday, we remember Jesus entering Jerusalem to the cheers of the crowd, welcomed with palms and great joy.

Yet we know how quickly that joy turned into rejection. This reminds us how easily our own faith can waver. Jesus comes to us not in power, but in humility and peace, riding on a donkey and showing us the true meaning of love and sacrifice. As we begin Holy Week, I invite you to walk closely with Him, to reflect, to pray, and to open your hearts to His mercy. May this week draw us closer to God and to one another. fr Richard
