25th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

“Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last”.

MATTHEW 20:16

You have heard the saying “it is not where you start, but how you finish.”

This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use.

Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live “God centred” lives and not “self-centred” lives.

Reflecting on St Matthew and Our Multicultural Mass

As we celebrate the feast of St Matthew this Saturday, our patron saint, we are reminded of his journey from tax collector to faithful disciple of Jesus. His life teaches us that God calls each of us, regardless of our background, to follow Him and share His love.

Our Multicultural Mass is a beautiful expression of this calling. We come together as one parish family, celebrating the many cultures, languages and traditions that enrich our community. May St Matthew inspire us to welcome one another with open hearts and continue building a parish united in faith, love and service. Fr Richard
