26th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

In three weeks' time, Catholic Mission will share an opportunity for you to partner with the Sr Carolina and the Salesian Sisters in Timor-Leste as they continue to provide an essential community project that addresses the gaps in care and well-being in rural communities like Venilale.

This work simply will not be possible without your support. We hope you will accept this invitation to make a real and lasting impact for those in need.

Thank You.

I would like to thank everyone who participated in the planning of our Mass and to those people who assisted in our Liturgical celebration. Your valuable assistance was noticed in the success of both, our Multicultural Mass and Feast Celebration. Thanks again for your time, effort and hard work.

New Volunteer requirements.

Mid July, the Archdiocese changed the requirements for having a Blue Card and a Police check.

A number of volunteer roles that previously required registration and/or particular compliance requirements have been removed and some compliance requirements have changed for the remaining roles. To align our records, we had to reclassify and update the Parish's roles recently.

Roles such as Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (Mass), collectors, and Hospitality no longer require registration.

Some volunteers may have already received a delink message from Blue Card services. However, their cards and police checks (if they got one) will remain valid until their card expire. We will not renew these cards, unless the volunteer moves into a new role requiring one. Fr Richard.

We have removed the weekly hardcopy list of names for the recently deceased, sick and anniversary. If you want someone to appear in the list of our newsletter please obtain their permission and email their names each Thursday before lunch time to the parish office.
